

Any show run by a RPSBS Ltd State Committee will be cancelled or postponed if the weather on the day of the show is scheduled to be over 38 degrees according to the website www.eldersweather.com.au at 11am the day before the show using the postcode closest to the show's location. Those exhibitors who do not have access to the internet can ring the Show Secretary for information.