- A proxy, attorney or representative of a Member need not be a Member.
- An instrument appointing a proxy or representative must be in a form as the Directors may prescribe or accept. An instrument appointing a proxy is valid if it is signed by the member making the appointment and contains the name and address of that member, the name of the Company, the name of the proxy or the name of the office of the proxy, and the meetings of Members at which the proxy may be used. The chairperson of a meeting of Members may determine that an instrument appointing a proxy is valid even if it contains only some of this information.
- Subject to the Corporations Act, the decision of the chairperson of a meeting of Members as to the validity of an instrument appointing a proxy, attorney or representative is final and conclusive.
- An appointment of proxy or attorney for a meeting of members is effective only if the Company receives the appointment (and any authority under which the appointment was signed or a certified copy of the authority) before the time scheduled for commencement of that meeting.

Proxy Forms can be sent by surface mail to The Secretary at PO Box 623, Richmond NSW 2753 or preferably emailed to mgs@smithfields.com.au
